Dear ones,
I've enjoyed every minute in C.H.S. with you. Remember the fun we had as Sophs when you, Lucia, and I had all our classes together? Let's make our Senior year the same ever. Keep on being the same old ~~stella~~ Stella and you'll have it made. Loads and loads of love this year and ever after.
lots of love,

We dedicate the 1957 ROUND-UP to you, Mr. Cotulla, as a token of our appreciation for all that you have done to help us.

Your constant guidance and genuine interest in our work have been a great source of encouragement to us, Uncle Jon. Only through your completely unselfish sharing of your many abilities and your tireless devotion to your work could our school be what it is.

Your example and influence will inspire us to greater heights always.

Foreword

With high hopes, we present to you, our '57 ROUND-UP. Mere words cannot express the heartfelt joy we have had, or the moments of discouragement we have felt. All of these, our book of memories records.

Our sincere hope is that you will enjoy this, our annual, as much as we have enjoyed preparing it for you.

Superintendent's Message

Another year has come and gone and you will long remember the fellowship and happiness you have experienced, principally because you have, in nine short months, become men and women.

As you take your place in society, we trust you will become responsible citizens, intellectually and spiritually competent, economically and socially successful and happy. To this end we have strived as your teachers; we hope we have not failed.

I wish to congratulate you on the publication of the 1956-57 Round-up.

Sincerely,

C. R. Landrum
Superintendent

Principals' Message

Congratulations to the Round-up Staff and Sponsor on adding a new chapter in the Cowboy tradition.

Through your unstinting loyalty, efforts and tears, you have brought to each student a visual reminder of the spirit of Cotulla High School.

Thank you!

Team Record: 4-5-1

COWBOYS' CO-CAPTAINS

Juan Gonzales, Manuel Sanchez, Fred Hillje, Charles Graves, Milton West.

The Cowboys opened their district games with the Dilley Wolves. Although the Cowboys were considered the under-dogs (by some) they upset the Wolves' Homecoming by defeating the Wolves 13-12. Throughout the game the Cowboys showed their fine spirit and hustle by powerful drives and a tight defense, stopping the Wolves twice on the one yard line.

Fight Song

Here's to the colors of Cotulla High
And the ideals for which they stand.
Here's to the Cowboys of Cotulla High
For they're the best in all the land.
Here's to the honor of Cotulla High
We know that you will still be true,
When all the walls have crumbled
And upon the ground they've tumbled
We'll be true, Cotulla High, to you.

THE 1957 EIGHTH GRADE GRADUATING CLASS

Snapshots

Give him breathing room, girls!

Maggie and Jiggs
"lovin' it up."

Wow! And who are these charming lassies?

The line-up

Poor fish and their wardens--

Ah - keep quiet, Gertrude!

Don't they look forsaken--

Shine, miss?

And off we go!

Cold, Sarah Lee?

You're supposed to be yelling!

What's the joke, Joe?

Ouch, Mr. Garms. That hurts!

Aren't they cute -- They Surely Are!

"Indulging" after the game.

Sarah and her "sweetheart" roses.

All aboard!

And furthermore --

Is it that bad, Charles?

Come on - let's get 'em!

And after the long trip--

Sweet bliss.

Boy - what a gang!

Watch him go!
To Hell!

Carol! You're scaring Polly!

Elvis "goes after it" but Elva has her mind on other things.

Wow! Look at that cat!

Hey, Charles - watch it now!

Now, June. Let's not get rough!

You'll wonder where the yellow went, when you brush your teeth with Pepsodent.

Lana poses--

Not too much, girls - you'll get fat.

Joe did it!

Take your pick, boys.

Easy, Manuel!

Come on - just a little favor, June.

Lytle presides at district banquet.

You better watch it, guy!

Mary steps into the spotlight.

Clyde and Wayne tear 'em up.

Why are you hiding, Freddy?
I don't know,

And the Platters step before the mike.

Working up a test - no doubt!

Ride em, Cowgirl!

In the deep, dark jungle the hunt proceeds.

Don't be stubborn, Polly.

Our beloved ex-teacher.

The Cotulla kids take a break from classes.

Cheese ~~cake~~ cake

Careful, Polly!

Ain't we cute?

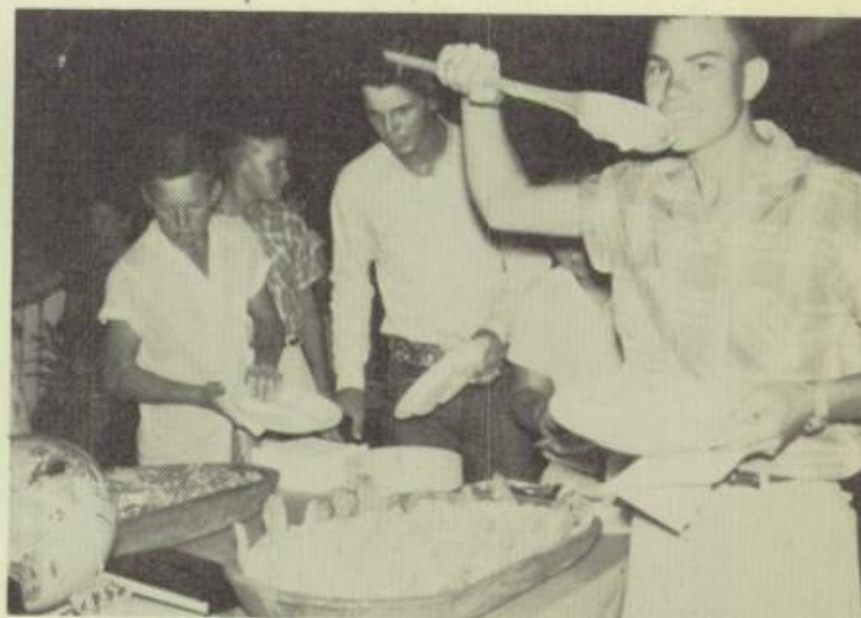

Dogpatch invades!

We come from the hills.
Wow! They look it!

Boys! What's going on here?

Not too much, Tommy!

After the party--

The age of innocence.

We'll Remember — our seventh grade trip to San Antonio.

Stella -
 Well, pal, looks like we have at last reached it. Seniors. I must say it has been a pleasure going to school with you. I'll never forget the good times we always had. I also hope that you'll be a success in everything & your years be filled with happenings.

I really wish to have something to say but I just can't say anything.
 I do hope my wish will come true one day and you will come to stay down at Encino for at least just one day. That will be the happiest
